This is one of the best Zaccaria tables, at least it is very pretty and colorful probably the cutest pinball table ever :) Only drawback is that it's sometimes hard to see what's going on in the left corner of the playfield.. As an owner of a original Farfalla machine I can say that this sim is right on the money plays and sounds just like the real thing. Zaccaria is an Italian built machine to top quality and there getting harder and harder to find. this Sim is awesome , not only you get a close look at the table and cabinet , you also get to play it like it was in the arcade. I recommend this for anyone that loves a good pinball machine or if you never even played one . this is as close as it going to get. and also now looking for some other real machines for my collection because of this game..
